

Art for Lunch?! Dancing for Lunch?!

HERE IS OUR LUNCH MENU

Dance your way to Mandarin with Nancy Suen.

A wonderful way to accelerate language learning is by using body movement. If you are learning Mandarin and you like to dance, Nancy Suen will lead you to Mandarin by way of Chinese classical dance, ballroom dancing, swing, Hustle or cha-cha-cha. Nancy will teach you these and other dances using Mandarin as the language of instruction. Enjoy the benefits of exercise, the pleasures of moving in time to music, and the wonder of learning a new language.

Nancy Suen started dancing when she was five years old. She has danced with many dancing and theater groups during her career. Nancy has taught dancing and Mandarin locally for 20 years. She is now the Mandarin and dancing instructor at Asian Arts School. One-hour classes are available between 11am and 2pm, Monday through Friday.

Drawing and Painting with Lin Wei.

Artist Lin Wei takes you, step by step, through the basics of drawing and painting while, at the same time, you develop your identity as an artist. Everyone's unique gifts deserve to be cultivated and refined. Give the artist in you the chance to grow. Start with painting bamboo, a flower, a bird or a fish and see what wonders appear. You will be surprised at what you can do, and your work will be exhibited at the school.

Lin Wei has a BA from Qufu Teachers University, and took three years of advanced studies at The Central Academy of Fine Arts in Beijing. She taught art at the university level in China for 12 years. She has 16 years of experience teaching and tutoring art in the United States at every educational level. She is currently the principal instructor at Asian Arts School. Classes for adults are available Monday through Friday from 11:00 to 12:00, 12:00 to 1:00 and 1:00 to 2:00.

To sign up for either course, call Lin Wei at 415-297-3072
