2015 MANDARIN AND ART SPRING CAMP

For children in Kindergarten through 5th grade

Spring is coming soon and it is the time to register for the AAS Mandarin and Art Spring Day Camp, this camp is conveniently located in San Francisco.

AAS Mandarin and Art Spring Day Camp is designed for children entering Kindergarten through 5th grade. This program will give them a unique opportunity to learn and improve their language skills in Mandarin, while deepening their knowledge of Chinese culture and art through age-appropriate play-based classes and activities in Mandarin. In spring 2015, Asian Arts Studio continues its partnership with the Confucius Institute at San Francisco State University. A Mandarin teacher from the institute will teach a Mandarin class during the week.

The 5-day workshop begins March 30 and ends on April 3. The basic program is from 8:30 am to 3:00 pm with an extended-care option from 7:30 to 8:30 in the morning and from 3:00 until 6:00pm. The students participate in classes conducted in Mandarin that include such culturally rich activities as drawing, Chinese brush painting, Chinese folk songs, poetry, dance, theater activities and more. Field trips will be arranged for landscape drawing during the camp. The field trips will mostly go to Stern Grove Playground, the Lowell High School basketball courts, and the northern end of Lake Merced (near Lakeshore Elementary). All sessions, including the extended care, will be conducted in Mandarin.

The Mandarin and Art Spring Day Camp is a small workshop with a maximum of 20 students. Each student will receive personalized treatment provided with love and care. The camp's goal is to teach the children basic Mandarin communication skills while they are having fun with a variety of hands-on activities and games.

Our Mandarin instruction and curriculum are supported by the Confucius Institute at SFSU
